About QBE Australia

QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited, ABN 78 003 191 035 AFSL 239545 is a member of the QBE Insurance Group Limited ABN 28 008 485 014 (ASX: QBE). QBE Insurance Group is Australia's largest international general insurance and reinsurance group, and one of the largest insurers and reinsurers in the world.

This booklet has been prepared by QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited without taking into account your objectives, financial situation or needs. You should consider this Product Disclosure Statement content carefully, before you make a decision to register for cover under it.

About Avant Mutual

Avant Mutual is Avant Mutual Group Limited, ABN 58 123 154 898.

Important information

The information provided in this section includes high level information about the Policy including privacy, our dispute resolution process and other relevant information.

The Policy Wording sets out the detailed terms, conditions and exclusions relating to the Policy.

This Policy may be accompanied by a Policy Schedule which sets out any applicable specific terms.

Group policies: about your right to claim

This is a group Policy which the insured has entered into with us for the period of insurance. You may be eligible to claim under it as a third party beneficiary, provided you met the eligibility criteria specified in the Policy, or under a particular cover, at the time an insured event occurred.

You can't cancel or vary the Policy – only the contracting insured and we can do this. If the Policy is cancelled or varied by us, we don't need to obtain your consent.

We also don't provide you with any notices in relation to this Policy. We only send notices to the insured as it's the only entity we have contractual obligations to.

You're not obliged to accept any of the benefits of this Policy but if you make a claim, you'll be bound by its terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions.

Neither we nor the insured hold the cover(s) or the benefits provided under the Policy on trust or for your benefit or on your behalf. The insured also doesn't:

- act on behalf of us or you in relation to the Policy, or
- receive any remuneration or other benefits from us.

If you're seeking to access the benefit of the Policy, you should consider obtaining advice as to whether it is appropriate for your needs from a person who is licensed to give such advice.

Nothing prevents you from entering into other arrangements regarding insurance.

To confirm if you may have access to the Policy, and its currency, please contact Avant Mutual.

The General Insurance Code of Practice

QBE Australia is a signatory to the General Insurance Code of Practice.

The Code aims to:

- commit us to high standards of service,
- promote better, more informed relations between us and you,
- maintain and promote trust and confidence in the general insurance industry,
- provide fair and effective mechanisms for the resolution of complaints and disputes between us and you, and
- promote continuous improvement of the general insurance industry through education and training.

Privacy

We'll collect personal information when you deal with us, our agents, other companies in the QBE group or suppliers acting on our behalf. We use your personal information so we can do business with you, which includes issuing and administering our products and services and processing claims. Sometimes we might send your personal information overseas. The locations we send it to can vary but include the Philippines, India, Ireland, the UK, the US, China and countries within the European Union.

Our Privacy Policy describes in detail where and from whom we collect personal information, as well as where we store it and the full list of ways we could use it. To get a free copy of it please visit qbe.com.au/privacy or contact QBE Customer Care.

It's up to you to decide whether to give us your personal information, but without it we might not be able to do business with you, including not paying your claim.

Resolving complaints and disputes

At QBE we're committed to providing you with quality products and delivering the highest level of service.

We also do everything we can to safeguard your privacy and the confidentiality of your personal information.

Something not right?

We know sometimes there might be something you're not totally happy about, whether it be about our staff, representatives, products, services or how we've handled your personal information.

Step 1 – Talk to us

If there's something you'd like to talk to us about, or if you'd like to make a complaint, speak to one of our staff. When you make your complaint please provide as much information as possible. They're ready to help resolve your issue.

You can also contact our Customer Care Unit (CCU) directly to make your complaint. Our aim is to resolve all complaints within 15 business days.

Step 2 – Escalate your complaint

If we haven't responded to your complaint within 15 days, or if you're not happy with how we've tried to resolve it, you can ask for your complaint to be escalated for an Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) review by a Dispute Resolution Specialist.

The Dispute Resolution Specialist will provide QBE's final decision within 15 business days of your complaint being escalated, unless they've requested and you've agreed to give us more time.

Step 3 – Still not resolved?

If you're not happy with the final decision, or if we've taken more than 45 days to respond to you from the date you first made your complaint, you can contact the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA is an ASIC approved external dispute resolution body.

AFCA resolves insurance disputes between consumers and insurers, at no cost to you. QBE is bound by AFCA's decisions – but you're not. You can contact AFCA directly and they'll advise you if your dispute falls within their rules.

Disputes not covered by the AFCA Rules

If your dispute doesn't fall within the AFCA Rules, and you're not satisfied with our decision then you may wish to seek independent legal advice.

Privacy complaints

If you're not satisfied with our final decision and it relates to your privacy or how we've handled your personal information, you can contact the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC).

Policy Wording

This Policy is underwritten by QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited ABN 78 003 191 035, AFSL 239545.

Our agreement

This Policy is a legal contract between the insured and us. It's made up of the Policy Wording, Policy Schedule and the Certificate of Insurance. The insured pays us premium and you may be able to claim under the Policy, provided you met the eligibility criteria at the time loss or damage occurred. There are also:

- conditions and exclusions which apply to specific covers or sections of this Policy,
- general exclusions, which apply to all covers and sections of this Policy,
- general conditions, which set out your responsibilities under this Policy,
- claims conditions, which set out your responsibilities when you make a claim, and
- other terms, which apply to how this Policy operates.

Excesses

If you make a claim you must pay any applicable excess(es) to the cover or section you're claiming under. These excesses may be set out in the Policy Schedule. Any applicable excess applies per person, not across a travelling group, even if for the same incident.

How much we'll pay

The most we'll pay for a claim is the maximum benefit amount set out in the Policy Schedule for the cover or section you're claiming under, less any excess. The amount we pay may be subject to an aggregate limit.

Aggregate limits of liability

This Policy is a group policy where cover is available to other persons or entities that satisfy the definition of an insured person. The maximum amount we will pay for any one event involving more than one insured person (including you) under this Policy is the aggregate limit of liability. If the applicable aggregate limit is not enough to pay all claims in full, then we will reduce yours and each other insured person's benefit proportionately.

The aggregate limit for Sections A, B, C, D, H, I, M and Additional Covers is inclusive of all claims under any and all of those sections arising from the same event.

Sections K and L have aggregate limits that appear within those sections.

Words with special meanings

The words and terms used throughout this Policy have the special meanings set out below.

Where other words and terms only have a special meaning in one section of the Policy, we'll describe that special meaning in that section.

Accident

A single, physical and external event which occurs unexpectedly at a specific and identifiable time and place.

Accompanying

Means a spouse or dependent child travelling for the primary purpose of joining an Avant member on a journey, provided such travel:

1. commences no earlier than 72 hours before the beginning of the Avant member's journey, and
2. concludes with the return to that traveller's normal place of residence no later than 72 hours after the completion of the Avant member's journey.

Avant member

Means a holder of a membership with Avant Mutual Group Limited.

Certificate of Insurance

Means the certificate of insurance for this Policy, which is current at the particular time during the period of insurance.

Compensation

The amount or percentage of benefit shown in the compensation tables of this Policy for a payable condition or payable event under each section of this Policy.

Country of residence

The country you normally reside in, being either Australia or New Zealand, as a citizen or legal temporary or permanent resident.

Cover start date

The date that your period of cover begins, as stated on your schedule of benefits.

Dependent child(ren)

Your or your spouse's unmarried child(ren) (including step and legally adopted children) who:

- normally reside with you, and:
 - are under 19 years of age, or
 - are under 25 years of age and a full time student, or
 - are primarily dependent upon you or your spouse for maintenance or support due to reason of diagnosed permanent mental or physical disability.

Excess

A sum of money that you are required to contribute to, or which we can deduct from, the amount of a claim for which an excess applies, for an incident under this Policy.

See 'Excesses' on this page for more information about how the excess works.

Excluded period of claim

The number of days of your disablement for which we won't pay any benefits under this Policy, after you first receive medical treatment by a registered medical practitioner for the injury or illness which resulted in your disablement.

Illness

Any sickness or disease which occurs while on a journey.

Infectious or contagious disease

Any disease capable of being transmitted from an infected person, animal or species to another person, animal or species by any means.

Injury

Bodily injury which:

- results from an accident which occurs while you are on a journey during the period of insurance, and
- is not an illness, or a consequence of any sickness or disease.

Injury also includes any condition caused by exposure to the elements as a result of an accident which occurs during a journey.

Insured

Avant Mutual Group Limited, as named on the current Policy Schedule as the 'Insured'.

Insured person

If you are an Avant Member:

- a) for business or leisure travel, an Avant member who is a medical practitioner or medical practitioner-in-training, a medical intern or registered medical officer (post graduate year 1 or 2) and either:
 - i. a citizen or a legal permanent resident of Australia or New Zealand, or
 - ii. holds a Temporary Skill Shortage Visa (subclass 482), Medical Practitioner visa (subclass 422), Temporary Work (Skilled) visa (subclass 457) or Training Visa (subclass 407), and
- b) their spouse and/or dependent child, accompanying the Avant member on a journey.

If you are an Avant employee:

- a) for leisure travel, an Avant employee; and
- b) their spouse and/or dependent child, accompanying the Avant employee on a journey.

Journey

Any travel as described in the time of operation of cover, shown in the Policy Schedule.

A journey includes travel by an accompanying spouse and dependent children.

A journey must not exceed six months duration, unless otherwise stated in the Policy Schedule.

Medical expenses

All reasonable costs necessarily incurred outside your country of residence for ambulance, hospital, surgical, diagnostic or remedial treatment referred or prescribed by a registered medical practitioner.

Non-scheduled flight

A flight which takes place outside of normal schedules and:

- is the subject of a hiring agreement with a charter airline, either by hiring the entire aircraft or an individual aircraft seat, or
- occurs using an aircraft privately owned by the insured, you or another insured person, or any other entity which does not require the purchase of ticketed seats.

Overseas

Outside the territorial borders of your country of residence.

Payable condition

The condition which is set out in the 'Compensation table' and/or the 'Policy Schedule' under each section of the Policy.

Payable event

The event which is set out in the 'Compensation Table' and/or the 'Policy Schedule' under each section of the Policy.

Period of insurance

The period of cover shown in your schedule of benefits. If you commence a journey during the period of insurance, the period of insurance for you is extended until the journey ends.

Policy Schedule

The schedule of insurance for this Policy which is current at a particular time during the period of insurance, including any endorsement schedule or any renewal schedule.

Pre-disability earnings

- 1. If you are self employed: your gross weekly income from personal exertion after allowing for costs and expenses incurred in deriving that income averaged over the 12 months prior to disablement or any shorter period that you've been engaged in your occupation.
- 2. If you are an employee: your basic weekly base rate of pay exclusive of overtime payments, bonuses, commission or allowances at the time of disablement.
If you are an employee who has elected to salary sacrifice income, your basic weekly base rate of pay will be deemed to mean the total cost of employment inclusive of such income salary sacrificed.

Professional sport

An activity which is competitively engaged in, governed by a set of rules or customs, requiring physical exertion and for which you receive a financial reward, payment or remuneration for their efforts and/or achievements.

Professional sport doesn't include you participating in sporting activities on an amateur basis (i.e. financial reward, payment or remuneration is less than 20% of your annual earnings).

Registered medical practitioner

A medical practitioner or healthcare professional who holds a current registration or licence to practice medicine with the respective medical practitioners board, or medical board (or similar) in the country that the medical practitioner is providing medical services in, other than:

- an insured person;
- a relative of an insured person; or
- an employee of the insured or an insured person.

Relative

Your parent, parent-in-law, step parent, child, step-child, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, half-brother, half-sister, fiancée, niece, nephew, uncle, aunt, grandparent or grandchild.

Schedule of benefits

The schedule of benefits issued to you by Avant Mutual at the time of your purchase of cover under this Policy.

Spouse

Your husband or wife, de-facto or life partner (including same-sex partners), with whom you have continuously cohabited for a period of six months or more at the time of a covered event.

Temporary partial disablement

Disablement that, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, prevents you from carrying out a substantial part of all of the normal activities associated with your usual occupation(s), profession(s) or businesses.

Terminal illness

A disease that cannot be cured or adequately treated and that is reasonably expected to result in the death of the patient within 24 months of the commencement date of your journey.

Temporary total disablement

Disablement that, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, prevents you from carrying out all of the normal activities associated with your usual occupation(s), profession(s) or businesses.

War

War, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, hostilities or war like operations (whether war be declared or not), civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, civil commotion assuming the proportions of or amounting to an uprising, or instance of military or usurped power.

We, our or us

QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited, ABN 78 003 191 035, AFSL 239 545.

You or your

Any person described in the Policy Schedule as an insured person, subject to:

- a) the relevant terms of registration and time of operation of cover provided under this Policy, and
- b) the valid payment of the insured person's travel insurance fee, and
- c) the provision by Avant Mutual Group Limited of the schedule of benefits to the Avant member.

Cover is provided to you as a third-party beneficiary by operation of section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act and on no other basis.

Section A: Capital benefits

Words with special meanings

In this section the following words have the meanings set out below.

Broken

A complete break of a bone and does not include a fracture not extending through the full thickness of the bone.

Loss of use

In connection with a limb, finger or toe means:

- permanent physical severance, or
- permanent and total loss of use, including the loss of ability to perform all domestic and other non-occupational functions.

Paraplegia

The permanent and total paralysis of both legs and part or whole of the lower half of the body.

Permanent

Continuing for at least 12 consecutive months and which thereafter will, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, be unlikely to materially improve.

Permanent total disablement

1. If you are in full-time employment at the time of injury resulting in your disablement, permanent total disablement means in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner:
 - a) your disability is permanent, and
 - b) you are entirely and continuously unable to engage in, perform or attend to any occupation(s), business(es) and profession(s) for which you are reasonably qualified by way of training, education or experience.
2. If you are not in full time employment at the time of injury resulting in your disablement, permanent total disablement means disablement as a result of an injury that:
 - a) has entirely and continuously prevented you from engaging in any occupation at all for at least 12 months, and
 - b) in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner will, in all probability, continue to prevent you from engaging in any occupation at all for the remainder of your life.

The definition of permanent total disablement is subject to restriction 6 under Section A – ‘Capital benefit restrictions’.

Permanent physical severance

If it occurs:

- to a hand or foot at or above the wrist or ankle;
- to an arm or leg at or above the elbow or knee, and
- to a toe other than a great toe, at or above, the third joint from its extremity.

Quadriplegia

The permanent and total paralysis of both legs and both arms.

What we will pay

We will pay you the amounts set out in the Compensation table: Capital benefits and Compensation table: Broken bones benefit if the payable conditions shown:

- occur during the period of insurance, and
- are a result of injury which occurs while on a journey.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if your claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:

- illness, or
- suicide or attempted suicide.

Restrictions applicable to capital benefits

1. Any payable condition claimed under capital benefits must occur within 12 months of the date of the accident which resulted in injury.
2. Any capital benefit payable will be reduced by any amount of any other capital benefit we have paid or are liable to pay to you in connection with the same accident.
3. If we have paid the disappearance capital benefit we will not pay any other capital benefits under this section.
4. The maximum amount we will pay for any one event involving more than one insured person is the aggregate limit of liability shown in the Policy Schedule. If this amount is not enough to pay all claims in full, then we will reduce each insured person's benefit proportionately.
5. The death benefit payable for dependent children is limited to $50,000 unless otherwise stated on the Policy Schedule.
6. If we do not agree with the opinion provided by a registered medical practitioner in relation to payable conditions 2 or 3, we will, at our own expense, appoint another registered medical practitioner to examine you. If the registered medical practitioner appointed by us disagrees with the opinion of the first registered medical practitioner with respect to payable conditions 2 or 3, we will, at our expense, arrange for you to be examined by an independent registered medical practitioner, who will be appointed in mutual agreement by you and us. In that case, the compensation amount we pay (if any) for either payable condition 2 or 3 will be based solely on the opinion of the independent registered medical practitioner.

Additional benefits applicable to Section A

Broken bones benefit

If you are on a journey and suffer an injury resulting in a broken bone listed in the compensation table, we will pay you the corresponding amount shown in the Compensation table: Broken bones benefit.

The maximum benefit amount payable for the broken bones benefit is shown in the Policy Schedule. This is the maximum amount we will pay you in total for all payable conditions under the broken bones benefit arising from any one accident.

Compensation table: Broken bones benefit

Payable condition – an injury resulting in the following broken bone(s):	Compensation as a percentage of the maximum benefit amount for the broken bones benefit shown in the Policy Schedule
1. Neck, skull or spine	100%
2. Hip	75%
3. Jaw, pelvis, leg, ankle or knee	50%
4. Cheekbone or shoulder	30%
5. Arm, elbow or wrist	10%
6. Nose or collarbone	20%
7. Foot or hand	5%

In the case of established non-union with respect to any of the above broken bones payable conditions, we will pay you an additional 5% of the broken bones benefit maximum benefit amount shown in the Policy Schedule.

Replacement staff/recruitment costs

If, as a result of your injury, a benefit has been or, will be paid under Section A: Capital benefits payable conditions 1 (death) or 2 (permanent total disablement), we will also pay the reasonable costs incurred by the insured person's employer for recruitment of a replacement employee, up to a maximum of $5,000.

Costs must be incurred within 60 days from the date of the accident which resulted in your injury. The most we will pay for the recruitment of replacement employees for all insured persons injured in relation to any one event is $15,000 in the aggregate.

Partner retraining benefit

If, as a result of your injury, a benefit is paid under Section A: Capital benefits payable conditions 1 (death) or 2 (permanent total disablement), we will also pay up to $15,000 for actual costs incurred for the training or retraining of your spouse:

- for the purposes of obtaining employment in an occupation within your education, training and experience, or
- to improve their employment prospects, or
- to enable them to improve the quality of care they can provide to you if you have suffered permanent total disablement.

The partner retraining benefit will only be payable provided that:

- your spouse is aged under 65 years at the commencement the training or retraining, and
- the training or retraining is provided by a recognised institution with qualified skills to provide such training, and
- the costs are incurred within 24 months of the date of your injury.

Corporate image protection

If, as a result of your injury, a benefit has been or, will be paid under Section A: Capital benefits payable conditions 1 (death) or 2 (permanent total disablement), we will also pay the insured person's employer the actual additional costs incurred with our prior written agreement:

- to engage external image or public relations consultants, and
- to release information through the media;

up to a maximum of $15,000. The most we will pay for corporate image protection for all insured persons injured in relation to any one event is $15,000 in the aggregate.

The corporate image protection benefit will only be payable provided that costs incurred are:

- additional to the insured person's employer's normal business expenses, and
- directly associated with your injury, and
- for the explicit purpose of protecting and/or positively promoting the insured person's employer's business and image as a result of your injury.

Disappearance benefit

If you are travelling on a conveyance, and

- your means of transportation disappears, sinks or is wrecked, and
- your body has not been found within 12 months or a coroner's or police report has been issued confirming the presumption that you have died as a result of injury;

we will presume that you have died as a result of an injury and we will pay the death benefit to your estate or legal representative, unless we have reason to suspect that you may not have perished.

If we have paid the disappearance benefit we will not pay any other capital benefits under this Policy.

If you are later found to be alive then you, or your estate or legal representative, must refund the amount we have paid.

Lifestyle modification benefit

If you are paid a capital benefit under any of payable conditions 2, 4, 5 or 7 of the Compensation table: Capital benefits, we will also pay for the costs necessarily incurred by you:

- in modifying your motor vehicle, or
- in modifying your home, or
- in relocating to a suitable home.

We will pay up to a maximum of $20,000.

Trauma counselling benefit

- If a registered medical practitioner recommends that you require trauma counselling due to your injury resulting in a benefit being payable under Section A: Capital benefits, or
- Your accompanying spouse, dependent child or travelling companion suffering death whilst you are on a journey, or
- You being a victim of or eyewitness to a violent criminal act or act of terrorism;

we will pay you $500.

The most we will pay for all insured persons requiring trauma counselling in relation to any one event is $10,000 in the aggregate.

Dependent child supplement

If, as a result of your injury, a benefit is paid under Section A: Capital benefits payable condition 1 (death), we will pay your estate $7,500 for each of your surviving dependent children, up to a maximum of $15,000 in total for your family.

Independent financial advice

If, as a result of your injury, a benefit is paid under Section A: Capital benefits, payable conditions 1-15, we will, at the request of either you or your estate, pay an additional amount up to a maximum of $10,000, in total, for costs incurred for independent financial advice.

Such advice must be provided by a qualified financial advisor who is not you or your relative, and who is authorised to provide such advice by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission or the Financial Markets Authority.

Section B: Weekly benefits – injury

What we will pay

We will pay you for your lost earnings, up to the amounts as set out in the Compensation table: Weekly benefits – injury if the payable conditions shown:

- occur during the period of insurance, and
- are a result of injury which occurs while on a journey.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:

- when a journey is undertaken against medical advice, or
- illness.

Restrictions applicable to weekly benefits – injury

- Any payable condition claimed must occur within 12 months of the date of injury.
- Successive periods of disablement resulting from the same injury, and which are not separated by a return to active full-time employment for six months or more will be considered as one period of disablement.
- Weekly benefits will be paid after the excluded period of claim has elapsed.
- We will continue to pay weekly benefits while you suffer temporary total disablement or temporary partial disablement up to a maximum of 156 weeks, unless stated otherwise in the Policy Schedule.
- The weekly benefit we pay will be the applicable percentage of your pre-disability earnings shown in the Policy Schedule, up to the maximum amount stated in the compensation table, and will be reduced by any amounts:
 - you receive or are entitled to receive for sick leave, and
 - you receive or are entitled to receive via any statutory workers' compensation or transport accident scheme, and
 - you derive, or are able to derive, as earnings from any occupation within your education training and experience.

Section G: Emergency travel assistance

Words with special meanings

In this section the following words have the meanings set out below.

Emergency medical assistance

Co-ordination of emergency medical treatment and services, including but not limited to:

- arranging for hospitalisation;
- repatriation;
- transfers;
- medical supervision during transportation;
- burial arrangements;

subject to Fullerton Assistance's prior express consent.

At Fullerton Assistance's discretion, emergency medical assistance may also include:

- arranging for family or friends to travel to you while you are hospitalised, and/or
- arranging for family or friends to accompany you on your repatriation.

Other travel assistance

Assistance for non-medical events including:

- providing a message service to you to enable you to keep in touch with family, employees and travel agents,
- organising your evacuation in the event of a political or environmental event which necessitates evacuation,
- pre-departure health information,
- location of Australia and New Zealand embassies and consulates,
- legal referral service,
- assistance in replacing lost or stolen travel documents and passports,
- referral to financial providers to cancel and replace your lost or stolen credit cards and cheques, and/or
- assistance and advice regarding the replacement of lost or stolen luggage.

What we will do

We will provide emergency medical assistance if you suffer an injury or illness which occurs while on a journey outside of your country of residence during the period of insurance.

Fullerton Assistance may advance any amounts necessary to settle medical bills which are covered under any section of this Policy.

Fullerton Assistance will also provide other travel assistance as described above.

What we will not do

We will not provide emergency medical assistance, or pay for any claim under this section of the Policy, if:

- Fullerton Assistance has not given its prior express consent, or
- it is in relation to a journey undertaken against medical advice, or
- it is in relation to a journey undertaken for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment, or

- it is in relation to a terminal illness diagnosed prior to the commencement date of the journey, or
- it is in relation to a journey within your country of residence.

Conditions applicable to emergency travel assistance

- In case of an emergency while overseas and before undertaking any personal action, you must contact Fullerton Assistance, and:
 - state your name and the policy number of this Policy, and
 - state the place and telephone number where you can be reached, and
 - give a brief description of the problem encountered and nature of help required.
- You agree to the release of information in order for Fullerton Assistance to ascertain your condition. Where you are not in a position to comply, because of the condition, consent may be given by a person acting on your behalf.
- Any decision concerning medical transfer and/or repatriation (such as date, means, medical equipment) will be jointly taken by both your attending registered medical practitioner and Fullerton Assistance's medical team.
- In the event of a claim for transportation costs, you must give Fullerton Assistance the unused portion of your original ticket or the counter value of the said portion.
- In any case of injury or illness requiring hospitalisation, transfer or repatriation, you or any person acting on your behalf must inform Fullerton Assistance as soon as possible. Failure to do so may entitle us to invoice you the supplementary cost to be borne by us which would not have been incurred if we had been notified of the injury or illness earlier.
- In a life-threatening situation, you should try to arrange for immediate emergency help first through local sources and then by contacting Fullerton Assistance as soon as possible.
- You must provide us with all documents and carry out all necessary formalities to enable us to recover payments from relevant sources, if applicable.
- Should we or Fullerton Assistance be required to advance payment of medical expenses, you must recover all entitled reimbursements for such expenses which are or would be payable in Australia under the Private Health Insurance Act 2007 (Cth) or in New Zealand under the Accident Compensation Act 2001 (NZ), or any registered health fund and pay all amounts received from these sources to us as soon as possible after you return to your country of residence.
- Neither we or Fullerton Assistance will be responsible for delays or impediment to the provision of assistance and services as a result of strike, war, invasion, act of foreign enemies, hostilities (whether war be declared or not), civil war, rebellion, insurrection, terrorism or military or usurped power, riot and civil commotion, radioactivity or any other event of force majeure.
- Payment of claims is limited to the applicable sum insured in the corresponding section of this Policy. If no cover applies under a particular section of the Policy, we will not be liable for any costs associated with the corresponding emergency medical assistance or other travel assistance described in this section.

All deaths, bodily injuries or losses of or damage to property, directly or indirectly related to or arising from:

1. one original cause, source or event; or
2. continuous or repeated exposure to the same general conditions.

What we will pay

If, whilst you are on a journey, there is an occurrence which results in a claim against you for damages, we will pay in accordance with the Compensation table: Personal liability.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:

- bodily injury in the course of your employment, or
- bodily injury to you or any member of your family, or
- loss of or damage to property belonging to you or in your control, or
- loss of or damage to property belonging to any member of your family, or
- loss of or damage to property or bodily injury arising out of your business or trade, or out of professional advice given by you, or
- loss of or damage to property or bodily injury arising out of ownership, use or possession of any mechanically propelled vehicle, aircraft (including remotely piloted aircraft), waterborne craft, or
- aggravated, exemplary or punitive damages or any fine or penalty.

Additional cover applicable to Section J

Court attendance

If you are required to attend court in relation to a claim which is payable under Section J, we will pay you $200 for each day of court attendance, up to a maximum $2,000.

Section K: Kidnap and ransom and personal extortion

Words with special meanings

In this section the following words have the meanings set out below.

Kidnapping

Any event or connected series of events of seizing, detaining or carrying away an insured person by unlawful force for the purpose of demanding ransom.

Personal extortion

To intimidate by a threat or series of threats to kidnap, or cause bodily injury, for the purpose of demanding ransom.

Ransom

Cash and/or marketable goods surrendered by or on behalf of you or the insured in connection with kidnapping, unlawful detention or an extortion event.

What we will pay

If you are the subject of kidnapping or a personal extortion threat while on a journey, we will pay the amounts as set out in the Compensation table: Kidnap and ransom and personal extortion.

The maximum amount we will pay under this section is shown in the Policy Schedule.

The most we will pay with respect to kidnapping or personal extortion occurring in any country located in Central or South America for any one event involving one or more insured persons is the lesser of:

- $250,000, or
- the aggregate limit for Section K: Kidnap and ransom and personal extortion stated in the Policy Schedule. The aggregate limit for this Policy is set out in the Policy Schedule.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:

- any event in a country in which the United Nations armed forces are present and active, or
- any kidnapping, personal extortion or ransom demand of which you are the subject if you have had this type of insurance declined in the past for reasons specific to your personal circumstances, or
- any kidnapping, personal extortion or ransom demand of which you are the subject if have had this type of insurance cancelled or issued with special conditions in the past for reasons specific to your personal circumstances, or
- any kidnapping, personal extortion or ransom demand of which you are the subject if you have been the victim or subject of a kidnapping, attempted kidnapping or personal extortion in the past.

Conditions applicable to kidnap and ransom and personal extortion

- The most we will pay with respect to kidnapping or personal extortion occurring in any country located in Central or South America is $250,000 in the aggregate for any one event involving one or more insured persons.
- You and the insured must make every reasonable effort to notify the local law enforcement agency of the demand for ransom prior to the payment of the ransom monies and to comply with their recommendations and instructions.
- If you have been involved in a fraudulent kidnapping or personal extortion, you must reimburse us all money paid by us for that loss.
- We will not act as an intermediary or negotiator for you nor will we offer advice to you or the insured on dealing with any kidnapping or personal extortion.
- You and the insured must take all precautions to protect the confidentiality of this cover.

Section L: Loss of deposits, cancellation and additional expenses

Words with special meanings

In this section the following words have the meanings set out below.

Additional accommodation, meal and travel expenses

Expenses reasonable for necessary accommodation, meals and travel costs, over and above what you and the insured had budgeted for, or could reasonably have expected to pay, had the journey gone ahead as planned.

Serious injury or serious illness

An injury or illness which results in a person being admitted as a hospital in-patient for a period in excess of 24 hours.

When your cover starts

Your cover under this section of the Policy begins from:

- your cover start date, or
- the date you first booked your journey,

whichever date is the later.

What we will pay

If during the period of insurance you or the insured incur:

- loss of travel or accommodation deposits paid in advance of your proposed journey; or
- additional accommodation, meal and travel expenses;

following the necessary cancellation, alteration or disruption of your journey due to a payable event which was unforeseen and unforeseeable at the time of booking, we will pay the amounts as set out in the Compensation table: Loss of deposits, Compensation table: Cancellation and disruption expenses and Compensation table: Additional expenses, up to the respective maximum amount shown in the Policy Schedule.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:

- the decision to change or alter travel plans for any reason other than the events listed in the compensation tables, or
- an outbreak of an infectious or contagious disease which has been declared a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC) by the World Health Organisation (WHO), where the claim is made after the date of any such declaration(s), other than where:
 - a) a relevant medical diagnosis has been made by a registered medical practitioner before the date of any such declaration(s), or
 - b) the WHO has cancelled or withdrawn any relevant PHEIC.

- travel and/or accommodation bookings made after a WHO warning, not related to a PHEIC, issued and/or reported in the mass media, which recommends against travelling to the intended destinations, or
- travel and/or accommodation bookings made after an Australian Government Travel Advisory is issued which recommends against travel to all or parts of the intended destination with a 'Do not travel' advice level (reference: Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade – website: smartraveller.gov.au), or
- travel and/or accommodation bookings made after public warning(s) or mass media reports are issued with respect to the event giving rise to a claim, or
- cancellation, disruption or alteration of a journey due to any circumstance which was foreseen, or could reasonably have been expected to be foreseen, by you or the insured prior to your travel and/or accommodation bookings being made, or
- the death of a person due to a terminal illness which was diagnosed prior to the journey, or
- the intentional self injury or suicide or attempt at suicide of any person other than your spouse or relative, who is not an insured person under this Policy, or
- when a journey is undertaken against medical advice, or
- the failure of any travel agent, tour operator, accommodation provider, airline or other carrier, car rental agency, or any other travel or tourism services provider to provide services or accommodation due to their insolvency, bankruptcy, provisional liquidation, financial collapse, appointment of receivers or any other form of insolvency administration of any person, company or organization they deal with.

Conditions applicable to Loss of deposits, cancellation and additional expenses

If an air ticket purchased using frequent flyer or similar customer loyalty points is subsequently cancelled due to a payable event described below in the Compensation table: Loss of deposits, Compensation table: Cancellation and disruption expenses and/or Compensation table: Additional expenses, we will reimburse you for the forfeited frequent flyer or similar customer loyalty points, up to the amount stated in the compensation table, as follows:

- If the points cannot be claimed or reimbursed by the airline or relevant provider, we will pay you the lesser of:
 - the cost of the equivalent class air ticket on the quoted retail price at the time the ticket was issued, or
 - the cost of a replacement air ticket to alter your journey.
- If the airline or relevant provider refunds a portion of the value of your forfeited points, we will pay you the lesser of:
 - the cost of the equivalent class air ticket based on the quoted retail price or booking at the time the ticket was issued, less the value of the portion of your refunded points, or
 - the cost of a replacement air ticket to alter your journey, less the value of the portion of your refunded points

Section M: Refund of motor vehicle excess following collision, damage or theft

Words with special meanings

In this section the following words have the meanings set out below.

Motor vehicle

A passenger class hatchback, sedan, van, minivan, station wagon, four-wheel drive or campervan.

What we will pay

If, while on a journey, you:

- hire a rental motor vehicle; or
- use your own private motor vehicle for a business purpose;

and, as a result of the motor vehicle being damaged, stolen or involved in a collision, you are liable for refund or payment of an excess amount under the terms of the rental motor vehicle hiring agreement, or your motor vehicle insurance policy, we will pay you the amounts as set out in the Compensation table: Refund of motor vehicle excess following collision, damage or theft.

The maximum amount we will pay under this section is shown in the Policy Schedule.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:

- loss of or damage to property arising out of ownership, use or possession of any mechanically propelled vehicle (not including motor vehicle), aircraft (including remotely piloted aircraft), or waterborne craft, or
- you do not hold a valid driving licence for the country in which you are operating the motor vehicle, or
- you use the motor vehicle illegally, or
- you cause loss or damage to a rental motor vehicle as a result of a breach of the provisions of the hiring agreement, or
- the rental motor vehicle is not rented from a licensed rental agency, or
- theft of or damage to your own private motor vehicle, unless it occurs whilst the vehicle is being used for a business purpose during a journey.

Compensation table: Refund of motor vehicle excess following collision, damage or theft

Payable event	Compensation – what we will pay
1. You are involved in a collision while in control of a rented motor vehicle or your own private vehicle (the later when used for a business purpose).	The amount of excess that you paid or are liable to pay, up to the maximum benefit amount shown in the Policy Schedule.
2. Your rented or own private motor vehicle (the later when used for a business purpose) is stolen or damaged.	The amount of excess that you paid or are liable to pay, up to the maximum benefit amount shown in the Policy Schedule.

Additional Covers

The following Additional Covers will automatically apply, unless stated otherwise on the Policy Schedule.

If you or, where specified, the insured, suffer or incur the relevant loss, liability or damage defined within the cover, during the period of insurance and whilst you are on a journey, we will pay up to the applicable limit stated for that cover, subject to the terms, conditions, exclusions and aggregate limits of liability of the Policy.

1. Environmental and natural disaster evacuation

This cover applies only if:

- you are on a journey outside of your country of residence, and
- a natural disaster or environmental emergency situation has occurred in that country, and
- it is agreed, in consultation with the insured and any relevant government(s), that you are at high risk if exposure to adverse local conditions continues.

What we will pay

If the adverse conditions resulting from the natural disaster or environmental emergency will continue for less than 30 days we will pay for arrangements necessary for:

- your evacuation to the nearest possible safe location outside the impacted area, and
- your return to the location from which you were evacuated, via scheduled commercial airline or equivalent, once the adverse conditions caused by the natural disaster or environmental emergency have sufficiently improved.

If the adverse conditions will continue for more than 30 days, or they ultimately do following your initial evacuation to a safe location, we will pay for arrangements necessary for your evacuation to your country of residence.

What we will not pay

We will not pay any claim under this section of the Policy:

- until reasonable local measures to protect your health and safety have been exhausted, or
- if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:
 - evacuation assistance or travel arrangements made without prior notification to Fullerton Assistance,
 - accommodation and living expenses you incur following evacuation.

Maximum limits

The maximum amount we will pay in total under this cover for any one claim or series of claims involving one or more insured persons, and arising from any one event, is $500,000 in the aggregate, subject to the applicable per insured person benefit amount stated in the Policy schedule.

2. Political evacuation

This cover applies only if you are on a journey in a country outside of your country of residence, and

- officials of the country in which you are travelling recommend that certain categories of persons, which includes you, should leave that country, or
- you are expelled or declared persona non grata, or
- there is wholesale seizure, confiscation or expropriation of your property, plant or equipment.

What we will pay

We will pay:

- the cost of your return to your country of residence or the nearest place of safety, up to the cost of an equivalent class airfare, and
- your reasonable accommodation costs up to a maximum of $500 per day for 14 days if you are unable to return to your country or residence.

What we will not pay

We will not pay any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:

- evacuation assistance or travel arrangements made without prior notification to Fullerton Assistance, or
- you violating the laws or regulations of the country you are in, or
- the failure to produce or maintain immigration, work, residence or similar visas, permits or other documentation, or
- debt, insolvency, commercial failure, repossession of property by a titleholder or any other financial cause, or
- the failure to honour any contractual obligation or bond or to obey any conditions in a licence, or
- an event occurring in a country of which you are a national, or
- natural or environmental disasters, or
- nuclear fuel or waste.

Maximum limits

The maximum amount we will pay in total under this cover for any one claim or series of claims involving one or more insured persons, and arising from any one event, is $500,000 in the aggregate, subject to the applicable per insured person benefit amount stated in the Policy schedule.

3. Search and rescue expenses

If, while you are on a journey, you are reported as missing and a recognised rescue provider or police authorities must launch a search and rescue operation because:

- it is known or suspected that you have suffered a life-threatening injury or illness; or
- weather or safety conditions make it necessary in order to prevent you from suffering a serious injury or illness;

we will pay the insured person up to $20,000 in respect of the necessary and reasonable costs incurred by a recognised rescue provider or police authority in searching for and retrieving you. The maximum amount we will pay in total for all search and rescue expenses incurred for all insured persons in any one period of insurance is $100,000.

Conditions

- At all times, you are required to comply with local safety advice and adhere to recommendations in force during your journey.
- You must not knowingly endanger your own life or that of any other insured person. You must not engage in any activity that requires a level of experience or skill that is beyond your ability.
- We must be informed as soon as reasonably possible of any emergency that may potentially give rise to a claim.
- We will only pay for the portion of expenses that relate to you or other insured persons covered under the Policy.
- Cover for costs incurred ceases at the time when:
 - you are recovered and returned to a place of safety by the search and rescue provider or police authorities, or
 - the search and rescue provider or police authorities advise that continuing the search is no longer viable.
- There is no cover under this section for any person to continue the search and rescue operation after the search and rescue provider or police authorities have decided to cease the search.
- In the event of a claim we will require a written statement from the applicable search and rescue provider or police authorities in order to assess the validity of the claim.
- We will not pay for any costs incurred under this benefit which are payable under another section or benefit of the Policy.

4. Spousal assistance

What we will pay

We will pay the amounts set out below if your spouse dies:

- during the period of insurance, and
- as a result of an injury, and
- while you are on a journey.

What we will not pay

We will not pay any benefits under this cover if:

- your spouse's death occurs whilst they are accompanying you on a journey, or
- your spouse's death is as a result of an illness, or
- your spouse's death is either a direct or indirect result of suicide or attempted suicide.

Maximum limits

The maximum amount we will pay is $30,000 as a result of the death of your spouse.

5. Additional cover back home

If you incur additional expenses as a result of an event specified below in paragraphs (a) to (d), we will reimburse these additional expenses incurred, up to the limits shown below.

a) Damage to residence

In the event your normal place of residence sustains damage whilst you are on a journey, which renders it unsafe to live in, we will reimburse additional accommodation, meal and travelling expenses incurred up to an amount of $400 per day, to a maximum of $5,000.

b) Home burglary excess

In the event your usual place of residence is burgled whilst you are on a journey, we will reimburse the excess under your home contents policy, up to a maximum of $1,000.

c) Domestic pet care

In the event you are delayed beyond your journey's original return date due to an event covered by this Policy, we will reimburse additional costs incurred, up to $50 per day and a maximum of $500 for care of your pet(s) in a commercial kennel or cattery.

d) Childcare/nanny benefit

If you are delayed beyond your journey's original return date due to an event covered by this Policy, and you incur additional childcare costs for your dependent child(ren) as a direct result of that delay, we will reimburse you for the additional cost of registered childcare for your dependent child(ren), up to $200 per day for each 24 hour period you are delayed, up to a maximum of $1,000 in total.

6. Death by specified sickness benefit

If you are on a journey outside your country of residence and, within four weeks of the commencement of the journey, you die solely and directly as a result of one of the following specified sicknesses:

- ischaemic heart disease,
- stroke,
- cancer,
- dementia or Alzheimer's disease, or
- lower respiratory disease;

and that specified sickness first became apparent after the commencement of your journey, we will pay $50,000 to your estate or personal legal representative, provided that:

- you are under 65 years of age at the time you die, and
- the period of insurance does not exceed 12 months, and
- the specified sickness and/or death was not directly or indirectly caused by any general exclusion, or any medical condition for which you required medication, treatment or advice prior to the commencement of your journey.

7. Repatriation and funeral expenses

If you die while you are on a domestic or international journey as a result of either injury or illness, we will reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred for:

- returning your remains and personal effects to your usual place of residence, and
- your funeral and burial or cremation;

up to a maximum amount of $50,000.

General exclusions

These general exclusions apply to all sections of this Policy.

We will not pay for any claim under any section of the Policy if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of or in relation to any of the following:

1. You are serving in the armed forces in any capacity whatsoever, or taking active part in any war, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, hostilities (whether declared or not), civil war, rebellion, revolution, or insurrection of military or usurped power.
2. Radioactive contamination, whether arising directly or indirectly including the use, existence or escape of any nuclear fuel, nuclear material, or nuclear waste or action of nuclear fission or fusion.
3. Any loss, destruction, damage, death, injury, illness, liability, cost or expense of any nature directly or indirectly caused by, contributed to by, resulting from or arising out of or in connection with any action taken in controlling, preventing, suppressing, retaliating against, or responding to or in any way relating to general exclusions 1 or 2 above.
4. Intentional self injury or suicide or any attempt at suicide, except under Section L (Loss of deposits, cancellation and additional expenses) in which case this exclusion does not apply to your spouse or relative, who is not an insured person under this Policy.
5. Flying or other aerial activity, unless travelling as a passenger in a properly licensed aircraft. This general exclusion does not apply to hot air ballooning, parasailing or bungee-jumping.
6. You committing or attempting to commit a criminal or illegal act.
7. You taking illegal drugs or drugs which are not prescribed for you by a registered medical practitioner.
8. Participating in or training for any professional sport.
9. Expenses recoverable by you from any other source such as workers' compensation or any other statutory scheme or Medicare or private health insurance.
10. Any expenses or costs which we are prohibited by law from paying within Australia or the country in which a claim occurs.

Health insurance exclusion

We won't pay any benefits under any section of this Policy which:

- are considered to be 'health insurance business' as defined in the Private Health Insurance Act 2007 (Cth) and its regulations, or
- we're prevented from paying under any law in any jurisdiction, including under the National Health Act 1953 (Cth) or the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Cth).

Infectious or contagious disease exclusion during a Public Health Emergency of International Concern

This policy does not cover claims in any way caused by or resulting from an 'infectious or contagious disease', and outbreak of which has been declared a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC) by the World Health Organization (WHO).

This exclusion shall apply to claims made after the date of any such declaration(s), other than where a relevant diagnosis has been made by a registered medical practitioner before the date of any such declaration(s).

This exclusion will continue to apply until the WHO cancels or withdraws any relevant PHEIC.

Sanctions limitation and exclusion clause

We will not be liable to provide any cover, pay any claim or provide any benefit under this Policy, to the extent that to do so may expose us to any sanction, prohibition, or restriction under United Nations resolutions or any applicable trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of any country.

Laws impacting cover

We will not be liable to provide any cover, pay any claim or provide any benefit under this Policy, to the extent that it is illegal for us to do so.

General conditions

There are conditions set out in this General conditions section, in the Claims section and under each particular cover and section. If any of these conditions aren't met, we may refuse a claim, reduce the amount we pay or in some circumstances we may cancel your Policy. When making a claim, you must have met and then continue to comply with the conditions of your Policy. Any person covered by your Policy, or claiming under it, must also comply with these conditions.

If you, or someone covered under your Policy, don't meet these conditions or make a fraudulent claim we may:

- refuse to pay your claim or reduce what we pay for your claim,
- cancel the Policy.

Assistance and co-operation

You must provide reasonable assistance to us, including:

- being truthful and frank at all times
- telling us as soon as possible if you've been contacted by someone about an incident, such as another insurer or a third party's lawyer
- attending one or more interviews about the claim if we ask you to
- appearing in court and giving evidence if needed
- responding to our requests in a timely manner

At all times you must refrain from behaving in a way that's improper, hostile or threatening towards us, our representatives or third parties involved in an incident.

If you don't cooperate in any of these ways, it may delay your claim, or we may reduce or refuse to pay your claim.

Reasonable actions and precautions

You must take reasonable care to prevent damage, injury or loss.

At all times you must:

- prevent damage to property insured, as well as to others and their property
- minimise the cost of any claim under your Policy.

There is no cover under any section of your Policy for any claim, loss, cost, damage, injury, death or legal liability, to the extent that it is caused by or arises from you not complying with all laws relating to the safety of a person or damage to property.

Preventing our right of recovery

If you've agreed with or told someone who caused you loss, damage or liability covered by your Policy that you won't hold them responsible then, to the extent we've been prejudiced by this act, we won't cover you for that loss, damage or liability.

Claims

This section describes what you must do at the time loss or damage occurs which is likely to give rise to a claim or when you make a claim, as well as the conditions that apply when you make a claim.

What you must do after an incident

1. If you're overseas and need emergency assistance, please contact Fullerton Assistance. You'll find Fullerton Assistance's overseas telephone number on page 4.
2. If you don't need emergency assistance, and just need to make a claim, download an Avant Travel Insurance claim form at avant.org.au and email it to avantclaims@qbe.com
3. If anything happens that is likely to give rise to a claim you must:
 - a) follow medical advice from a registered medical practitioner as soon as possible after sustaining injury or illness.
 - b) obtain, complete and send us the Avant Travel Insurance claim form as soon as possible.
 - c) undergo any medical examination by a registered medical practitioner appointed by us if we require it.
 - d) at your expense, provide us with any information about the claim we ask for, including:
 - i. reports from police, transport provider, hotel or other authority,
 - ii. reports or certificates from a registered medical practitioner,
 - iii. accounts and receipts,
 - iv. valuations and proof of ownership,
 - v. letters and notices you receive or become aware of from anyone else about your claim.
4. If you have a question about a potential claim or existing claim, call QBE's claims team on (02) 9375 4874 (8:30am – 5:30pm, Mon-Fri, Sydney time).
5. You must give us written notice as soon as possible of every claim, writ, summons or proceedings, including any prosecution or inquest, and all relevant information in regard to matters which may give rise to liability under the Policy.
6. As soon as an event that can justify a claim occurs, you must make reasonable endeavours to minimise the loss, damage or liability.
7. We have the sole right to make admissions of liability, and you must not make any such admissions. We may refuse to indemnify or cover you if you admit fault, make any offer of payment or defend a claim in court without our consent.

Payment of benefits

Some benefits under this Policy are payable to you (or to your legal personal representative). You may instruct us to make a payment to someone other than you. Other benefits are payable to the insured.

Contribution and other insurance

When making a claim, you must notify us of any other insurance that you are aware will or may, whether in whole or in part, cover any loss insured under this Policy.

If at the time of any loss, damage or liability there's any other insurance (whether issued to you or to any other person) which covers the same loss, damage or liability you must provide us with any reasonable assistance we require to make a claim for contribution from any other insurer(s).

Excluded period of claim

Some sections of this Policy are subject to an excluded period of claim. The excluded period of claim set out in the Policy Schedule is the number of days for which we won't pay any benefits under this Policy after you first receive medical treatment for the injury or illness you're claiming for.

Providing proof or evidence

You must be able to demonstrate that you've suffered a loss covered by your Policy for your claim to be accepted. We may ask you for this evidence if you make a claim under your Policy.

So your claim can be assessed quickly, make sure you keep the following:

- documents which substantiate your earnings;
- any medical certificates that relate to your claim; and
- receipts or invoices for items you seek to be reimbursed for.

Subrogation, recovery action and uninsured loss

We may at any time, at our expense and in your name, use all legal means available to you of securing reimbursement for loss or damage arising under your Policy. In the event we do so, you agree to give all reasonable assistance for that purpose.

If you've suffered a loss that wasn't covered by your Policy as a result of the incident, we may offer to attempt to recover this. You may also specifically ask us to recover this for you. You'll need to give us documents supporting your loss. Before we include any uninsured loss in the recovery action we'll also ask you to agree to the basis on which we'll handle your recovery action. You may need to contribute to legal costs in some circumstances.

Taxation implications

If you're a business you must tell us if you're registered, or are required to be registered, for GST. When you do this, we need you to give us:

- your ABN; and
- the percentage of any input tax credit (ITC) you will claim, or will be entitled to claim, on your premium.

When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the amount we pay you. Your claim settlement amount will be adjusted to allow for any ITC entitlement.

Unless we say otherwise, all amounts in your Policy are inclusive of GST. There may be other taxation implications affecting you, depending upon your own circumstances. We recommend you seek professional advice.

Other terms

These other terms apply to how your Policy operates.

Currency

The values and limits shown in this Policy are in Australian dollars (AUD). If expenses are incurred in another currency, then the rate of currency exchange used to calculate the amount of compensation to Australian dollars will be the rate at the date the payable condition or payable event occurred.

Jurisdiction

This Policy will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Australia. You agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Australia.
